ISSUE 24

Once again I would like to remind everyone that there have been some very important changes to the Event Calendar.

The most important one is the WA Squash Junior State Championship. It will now be played in Kalgoorlie from 7th to 10th July.

Also, the President's Cup (formerly known as the Karakal Kup originally scheduled for January) has now moved to 31st March to 1st April. The Club Perth will now host the event.

Congratulations to Greg Chan (Player of the Year) and Abel Jin (Junior of the Year). You both deserve this special recognition.

Great to see the Hilton Exploder was a tremendous success and thank you to Michaela Pratt for her report. Love the humour!

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

To be held at The Club Perth on Wednesday 28 March 2018 at 7pm.

(WA Squash, Terrace Rd, East Perth)

4 Board positions are up for 2 year re-election and 1 position is vacant due to resignation.

Everyone welcome.

Story by Michaela Pratt

The junior squash season officially started with the 2018 Hilton Exploder. With so many new faces, it was almost hard to spot the older ones, and no, I wasn't talking about the lovely Pam, who once again assisted as tournament referee!

The Exploder ran smoothly from the outset with many matches going more than three games, showing the accuracy of the seedings and the competitiveness of the player groups.

Many thanks to Rachel and her team for the smooth running of the event and a huge well done to a few individuals who had to play with a shortened break due to the length of their matches.

I think Lewis Christie holds this year's record with 14 games played in his first 3 matches. (not sure what happened in the final – probably went to 5 as well)

The Hilton toastie's held their place as my favourites so far (clever of Rachel to use a kitchen assistant who didn't require a hair net, to help keep costs down) and the awesome (sic) brownies have set a standard for the rest of us.

The squash was exciting with many close matches and exciting upsets. Where do these little kids keep coming from?

Biggest comeback of the day was Jacqui Gray who came back from 2 love and 10/5 down to win in 5. Her opponent in a wonderful example of sportspersonship (is there such a word?) conceded a double bounce the referee missed whilst up match point, well done Eva. Will Jacqui find her perfect match at the Narrogin SHS ball? I have seen the talent and I think not.

Lucky escape of the weekend goes to Dylan Classen who is thankfully OK after being knocked off his bike on Saturday. Bruised and covered in bandages it was nice to see him smiling and being so positive after his nasty experience. Surely the driver must have heard Dylan, he never stops talking.

Congratulations Oscar Curtis for taking home the premier division. Perhaps a position as Oscar's speech writer may be up for grabs, given his exceptional form so early in the season. (squash form that is!)

Other exciting announcements included the WA Junior Squash Player of the Year and the WA Junior of the Year. Greg Chan won the Player of the Year, with very successful tournament results both in and out of Australia while Abel Jin took home the Junior of the year.

As well as stepping in and accepting the awards on behalf of the two boys Sue Hillier also promoted the new "Be a True Sport" national campaign and Abel embodied all 8 values of being a True Sport showing his class and caring nature.

PROMOTE RECOGNISE & THANK

The most exciting one day series for juniors returns in 2018 with a brand new look!

Whilst the branding has changed the events will continue to be delivered by the “dynamic duo” of Mike Cornish and Nigel French.

These tournaments are all AJST Bronze events and cater for all abilities.

Points are awarded for every finishing position. Points are awarded at each event and ultimately, determine the SGPS Champions for 2018.

In its 3rd year the SGPS delivers opportunities for beginner and novice kids to shine in a competition that is nurturing and supportive.

We encourage your participation and look forward to seeing you all again at our first tournament for 2018 - Katanning on Saturday 19th May.
