Congratulations to Glenn Hitch who has just been elected President of WA Squash.

The Executive will include Trevor Cruickshank (Vice President), Deb Hoffrichter (Secretary) and Neil Butler (Treasurer).

Board Member will include Carsten Frederiksen, Doug Minchin and Ray Smith.

There was action a plenty on the court in junior and senior squash with the Mirrabooka Open and Head Junior Classic being played as well as the President's Cup at the beginning of the month.

Not to be left out the Masters were in action too at the Hilton Classic.

Mike Corren continues to rule the West winning the Mirrabooka Open. Cindy Meintjes did likewise in the Ladies event.

These two keep winding the clock back showing no signs of ageing as they continue to deny the youngsters from overtaking them.

Pascale Louka and Abel Jin won the U19 events at the President's Cup whilst Remi Young and Erin Classen won the same titles at the Head Junior Classic.

WA is now gearing up for lots of events. The main events are the WA Open from

PRESIDENT'S

CUP 2018

Michaela's Easter Story

The Easter Long Weekend held an eggstra special event ... The Presidents Cup.

Well done to WA Squash for rescheduling this event and finding a place on the busy junior squash calendar and a huge thank-you to Don who made it happen and Pam, our eggs-spurt referee.

Everyone performed egg-cellently with Able Jin taking home the U19 boys event, in a tightly contested match against Oscar Curtis (11/8 in the fifth!) Pascale Louka was egg-ceptional in the girls U19.

It was egg-citing to see a mix of players with different egg-speriences present, from the newbies (Isla McMullan, the Phillip-Jones's and Al-Shabib's) to the more regular players.

These egg jokes are getting worse but I'm omelette-ing them slide. The food at this event was cracking, and sorry Hilton, but they now have my vote with the make-your-own sandwich and muffin range.

Although the Easter bunny didn't visit this event, plenty of country bunnykins did, with Moora, Bunbury, Manjimup, Exmouth and Narrogin represented.

Congratulations Jamie Tsangaris and her family, the current leaders in the how far will you go for squash? competition, who made the long and treacherous hop from Exmouth.

P.S. Kids don't forget to thank your parents: many were helping to ref or mark games, prepare food and attend meetings. And to finish with another bad joke ... That's all Yolks!

WA MASTERS APRIL UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

Website

The WA Masters Squash website has been up and running for a couple of months now, and members are increasingly reading and commenting on the content - GREAT!

The website is a great 'immediate' vehicle for conveying information and news to everyone, so please use it to keep MASTERS members up to date with all the latest in the squash community. Take candid photos and embarrass (or not) your mates; tell us about achievements some might be too modest to mention; or just keep in touch with anything of interest.

Let us know what you want to see there - that's what it is all about.

Hilton Individuals Tournament 28-29 April

The annual Hilton Individuals (ranked) Tournament was held over 2 days on 28-29 April 2018 - 41 players across 7 divisions competed, with everyone playing a minimum of 3 matches.

Thanks to Ed Jennings and Terry Brookes for working tirelessly to achieve the very respectable number of entrants in the tournament – a very difficult task on the Western Derby weekend. Brian Roby did a wonderful job in creating 7 different draws to accommodate the vast range of abilities, ensuring everyone had great games. While there were a few last minute changes by players due to unavoidable circumstances, all opponents generously and happily complied with any time changes required.

Finding ourselves short of a player in the Division 1 draw, Shane Great-Rex was recruited to fill the spot. Although technically not yet old enough to be a Master (a baby at 32!!), his playing strength was definitely key to a successful Division 1 draw. Thanks Shane, and we certainly look forward to your permanent addition to the Masters ranks when you 'come of age'.

Thanks also to Hilton owner, Rachel Percival, and her helpers who kept everyone well fed and watered both days of the tournament. WAMS committee also provided some cheese & nibbles for everyone to enjoy.

Some great squash was again on show – Division 1 (Shane Great-Rex, Chris Chan, Sue Hillier & Danny Zande) providing fabulous entertainment for all to view – giving us all a glimpse of what can be achieved with dedication and practice, especially when you are also blessed with amazing natural talent! Just brilliant, thanks to all four of you for the squash lessons, super stuff!

Although we can't all be winners, the Masters spirit and camaraderie that we've come to expect and respect was, of course, again in full evidence over the two days of the tournament.

Congratulations to all winners, and a huge thanks to all competitors for participating and helping to keep Masters tournaments alive here in the West. Additionally, this and all tournaments would not get off the ground without our sponsors, so a massive thanks to squash.com.au for providing 1st and 2nd prizes in each division, and to Jetts Fitness for all 3rd place prizes. BR Sports again generously provided the tournament draw and administration. Thank you once again to all contributors, all of who make the committee's job much easier.

Friday Night Masters

If you feel you need an extra hit and at the same time experience a great squash and social night, don't forget our Friday Night Masters competition at Blue Gum Squash Centre. If you are interested in playing please contact Kane on 0421 490 799 and he will be more than willing to get you on board.

Upcoming events

The next event on the Masters calendar is the State Masters at the end of July, followed by the Australian Masters in Hobart at the start of September. If you are interested in playing in the Australian Masters event please let us know as soon as you can, as we need to arrange teams and uniforms and a few other things.

Entertainment Books

Don't miss out on your Entertainment Book this year. At only $65 you will more than recoup your investment after only two or three outings. Vanessa Powell has kindly agreed to again organise the books for Masters; she can be contacted on 0402 817 214. This is a great fundraiser for Masters and all the profits get poured back into supporting Masters player functions and events.

BLUE GUM SQUASH CLUB

The Blue Gum Squash Club (Inc) was established in 1977, and celebrated it's 40th anniversary in October last year.

The club operates out of Squashworld Brentwood, (formerly Blue Gum Squash Centre), and is located in Disney Street, Brentwood - just a short distance away from the Kwinana Freeway / Leach Highway.

The Blue Gum Squash Club (Inc) has remained strong over the years, despite the downturn in participation in squash. We continue to attract new players, and have also welcomed players from the many clubs south of the river that have shut their doors, these include - Bull Creek, East Fremantle, Rossmoyne, Canning Bridge and Melville.

The Blue Gum Squash Club (Inc) is one of the largest clubs in Perth. We had 122 members in 2017 and are on track for a similar number in 2018. We were the largest club with regard to pennant teams south of the river, with 14 teams, and have had quite a bit of success in recent years winning 13 pennants in 2017.

We promote squash in the local community, and we already support casuals, pennants, in-house competitions, masters, a small junior programme, and volleyball!

We are working to improve our facilities and encourage more people to play squash. We would like to grow our club to at least 200 members by 2020.

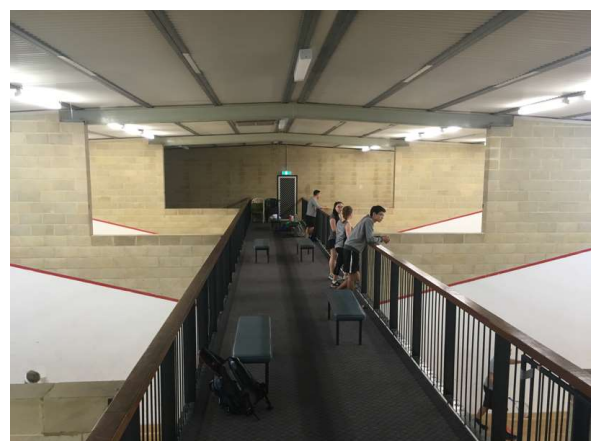

You are welcome to join us!

SQUASH WORLD

On the 14th and 15th of April Squashworld Mirrabooka hosted the Mirrabooka Open in conjunction with the Head Junior Classic! A lovely weekend enjoyed thoroughly by over a hundred participants from all over the state, various spectators and organisers. Squashworld appreciates the players, parents, volunteers, and various sponsors who all helped to make the event so enjoyable. We hope to see everyone again at future tournaments in WA!

Young Meets Old at the Booka by Michaela Pratt

Unpack the school bag, pack up the squash bag, what a great way to start the school hols!

Held at the Booka, the tournament offered both junior and senior competitions, thanks to Kane Fasolo and the legendary team at Mirrabooka Squash Club who kept the event and the catering ticking along.

Also a big thank you to Head who have offered their support through sponsorship of this long running event ... what great prizes!

The combination of the juniors and seniors led to a great family atmosphere with a positive vibe throughout, whilst the U11's played their endless chasey games, the more senior players were left to lean on their elbows and solve the world's problems.

Although everybody starred over the weekend, none shined as bright as Erin Classen and Oscar Curtis.

Whilst Oscar fell to Remi in the U19 final, he also played in the Mens Open and took some big scalps along the way, including Dan Jones and Damon Macmillan in enthralling encounters.

HEAD[®]

JUNIOR CLASSIC

Erin went one better and took home the U19 female title and performed above her weight in the Ladies Open.

Other notables were Hannah Slyth who continues to improve with each event. The Marsh boys continue to impress and the classic final between Caitlin Pratt and Isla Harris (unbiased of course) was definitely one to watch.

Also, a shoutout to the Esperance mob who were well represented and covered the most distance. Great to see the Pianta's and Max Forbes back on the tournament circuit.

This event was particularly exciting for juniors as we not only saw the higher levels play (including some of our coaches!), but some even got to play against them. I think its safe to say that squash was the winner.

On a final note, big thanks to Denise Christie and her fabulous pavlova. What a finish to a great weekend of squash.
