ISSUE 35

Well there were a few developments in WA during January.

The WA Squash Office has moved, Don Huffer has retired and Dean Williams (pictured) is now the caretaker GM. Thank you for all your efforts Don and I certainly wish Dean every success.

Damon Macmillan and his support crew delivered a wonderful Talent Development Camp. 31 juniors took part which is a wonderful sign for the future.

A big thank you to the major sponsor: Healthways - Smarter than Smoking. Their program delivers a great message to all our players.

Finally two events were played: the New Year Bash for Juniors and the West Coast Open for (mainly) our seniors.

Dylan and Erin Classen and Isla Harris were in great early form. All 3 players won a double at the AJST Silver event.

The "Moose" has done it again. This time Mike Corren took out the West Coast Open.

Rachel Percival has retired from running Hilton and Kane Fasolo will be leasing the centre under the Squash World banner.

Great to see Damon Macmillan and Pascale Louka join the PSA. We certainly wish them

BOARDROOM

President's Pen

Happy New Year to you all!

We've hit the ground running at WA Squash. We have moved into a new office location at the beginning of January which is located at 15/386 Wanneroo Road Westminister WA 6061. Significant efforts by Dean Williams, Trevor Cruickshank, Neil Butler, Don Huffer, Carsten Fredericsen and Kane Fasolo to facilitate the move. Thank you!

Sadly, Don Huffer has resigned as CEO of WA Squash as of the end January 2019. For the many people who have worked with Don you will know Don's burning passion for squash, he has contributed tirelessly for many years and on behalf of the WA Squash Board and the Squash community I would like to thank him for his contribution. True to Don's character, he has kindly offered to help wherever he can for the benefit of squash. Squash will miss him but I hope he can remain involved at some level.

Dean Williams has stepped in as the caretaker General Manager; Dean comes with a plethora of experience in squash both as a player and sports administrator. WA Squash is very fortunate to have the services of Dean.

The Board is busy working on its Operational Plan, which will be presented to Members at the AGM. This will outline the various roles and responsibilities within WA Squash including the roles of our various committees.

I'm pleased to announce the WA Squash Coaching Committee has been formally established, the committee members are: Ken Watson (Chairperson), Sue Cowell (Secretary), Sue Hillier, Damon Macmillan and Glenn Hitch (Board representative).

The Coaching Committee has been constituted to direct and oversee the player development area. Its brief is broad, including both participation and competition and extending from beginner level to high performance players across all ages. We have also established a Facilities Group to work on increasing and preserving the current squash facilities in WA.

Your in squash ...

HILTON NEWS

With Rachel Percival

It is with very mixed feelings that I would like to announce that I have decided to retire from running Hilton Squash starting at the end of January.

I have chosen to do this at a time when I still love being at the courts and I know that I will miss it.

I'm very excited to welcome Kane Fasolo and his business partner Adam Simmons who will be leasing the courts from me to add Hilton to their Squashworld group.

I have been running the courts since January 2008 and in that time have got to know some wonderful people from the squash community, I have learnt to play squash and enjoyed the friendship and competition of playing pennants. I have seen Hilton Squash grow to be a vibrant, active sporting venue that has been my pleasure to develop.

For those of you who are wondering what I am going to do with my retirement, I have threatened to take up knitting but I'm not sure that I will have time to do that along with travel, windsurfing, mountain biking, grand parenting and generally kicking back, especially in the evenings!!

I would like to thank all the players who have enjoyed the Hilton hospitality over the last 11 years for your support and I wish all well with the ongoing operation of Hilton Squash.

Thanks Rachel

We wish you well!

Damon Macmillan Reports

On the 24th and 25th of January, the 2019 Smarter than Smoking Junior Squash Camp was held at Squashworld Brentwood and marked the beginning of a big year for junior squash in Western Australia.

With 31 juniors present, representing 8 clubs throughout Perth and surrounding towns, the camp provided a fantastic opportunity for kids to make new friends, learn off one another and have fun in an action packed 2 days of squash. For many juniors, this camp served as an excellent bridging step between junior club programs and junior tournaments.

The camp was organised and run by Sue Hillier, Tim Cowell and Damon Macmillan, with tremendous help from coaches Callum Blakey, Josh Blakey, Sanny Ang with assistance from Pascale Louka. Neil Butler talked about etiquette and refereeing.

DAY 1

Following an introduction (including a briefing about True Sport - 8 Values to Play and Live by) and group photo, players took straight to the courts for several rounds of king of the court to determine appropriate ability levels for upcoming skills exercises.

The first series of exercises focussed on simple movement in and out of a shot, as well as the grip, racquet preparation and follow through. Following on from this were exercises highlighting the fundamental shots of our game, and aimed to teach juniors not only how each shot is executed, but when it's most appropriate to be played.

Coaches were each assigned a different shot, allowing them to tailor the exercise to the ability of each group.

After a lunch break, juniors faced a number of fitness tests which measured their core and upper body strength as well as their speed, agility and endurance. With everyone trying their best, it was no wonder there were some very sore bodies the following day.

Thursday finished off with some more game play followed by a cool-down where kids were able to share what they had learned from day 1.

DAY 2

Friday focussed on teamwork, so juniors were split into 5 teams and tasked with a number of "5-minute-to-win-it" challenges. These included hitting lobs and drops into buckets, serving onto targets and a referee quiz as well as non-specific squash challenges such as the helium stick, concentration grid and paper plane challenges. This allowed for different kids to excel regardless of their squash experience.

Talent Development Camp

These activities also gave older juniors a chance to showcase leadership skills as many of these challenges require such characters to step up. I was really impressed by the way in which the teams and their leaders communicated and cooperated to achieve the best possible result.

With the completion of the team challenges, new teams were formed in preparation for the end of camp, 'Smarter than Smoking' squash team challenge. The 4 teams were required to come up with a team name which had something to do with our sponsor Smarter than Smoking and this exercise produced some creative results.

'Don't Choke on Our Smoke', 'Chemical Cleaners', 'Smokebusters', and 'Smokeless', all competed against one another in a "reverse king" style competition which saw 'Don't Choke on Our Smoke' crowned champions.

Having completed the mini tournament, the camp came to a close with a presentation and camp summary which allowed us to thank and acknowledge those who were involved as well as our sponsors Smarter than Smoking and the 8 values of True Sport.

Overall, this year's camp ran incredibly smoothly thanks to all the work done both behind the scenes and on the 2 days. Personally, I'd like to thank all my fellow coordinators, organisers and coaches as well as the parents who kindly assisted in the kitchen preparing lunch and morning tea.

Another thank you to Squashworld Brentwood for hosting the camp (as well as the succeeding New Year's Bash tournament).

Finally, I'd also like to thank all the juniors for coming along (and the parents for taking them!), I hope to see you all again at other junior events throughout this year.

New Year's Bash

The 2019 Junior Tournament competition year commenced on the weekend of 26th and 27th January when the New Year's Bash aged based event was held in tandem with the 2019 West Coast Open senior event at Brentwood Squash Centre.

The New Year's Bash attracted thirty nine players with twelve of the field competing in two age groups with five others also competing in the West Coast Open.

Twins Erin and Dylan Classen were dominant, each taking home two titles in their respective round robin Under 19 and Under 17 events.

The three Marsh brothers had success with Daniel (Under 15 Boys), Eric (Under 13 Boys) and Alexander (Under 11 Boys) all winning their divisions.

Isla Harris also took out two titles winning the Under 15 Girls as well as the Under 13 Girls events.

It was pleasing to have three competitors in the Under 11 Girls division with Jessica Jellis (Marmion) finishing 1st, Mia Lucas-Smith (Blue Gum) 2nd and Tahlia Ham (Blue Gum) 3rd.

WA Squash would like to recognize the contributions of Kane Fasolo and staff at the Brentwood Squash Centre, Tournament Referee Pam Addison and to all those who assisted in the preparation of food for our participants and their family members that were in attendance.

The West Coast Open Returns by Kane Fasolo

After a 10 year hiatus the West Coast Open returned to the Tournament Circuit over the Australia Day long weekend.

For many years the West Coast Open was the first official event of the year on the WA Squash Calendar and this year it returned and was held in conjunction with the New Years Bash Junior Tournament.

The venue was Squashworld Brentwood (formerly Blue Gum Squash Centre) and the atmosphere was fantastic as the Centre hosted it's first Tournament in at least 10 years.

Whilst numbers weren't enormous the Divisions were extremely evenly matched and it made for some fantastic matches over the weekend. There were many long 5 set matches with quite a number of them getting to 10 all in the last game and needing to use the win by 2 rule!

This years West Coast Open was also the first of 5 Events on the newly established Squashworld Tournament Circuit which will feature the West Coast Open, WA Closed Championships (Mirrabooka), Mirrabooka Open, Hilton Open, and Cambridge Open Tournaments with players accumulating points from their best 4 Events to decide the eventual Circuit Winners after the Cambridge Open.

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

Battle of Belmont

The 2019 Masters Tournament year started with a bang on the 1st of February with the Battle of Belmont. A record 66 entrants competed and, even after a hot 40-degree day, the action on and off the court was fast and furious.

The Belmont Squash Centre management and staff handled their first Battle of Belmont with aplomb and, as usual, the Masters committee did an exceptional job of making sure players were well matched, getting the event going on time, and providing delicious food at the end of the event.

The tournament is centred more on everyone having great games and enjoying a fun event to start off the squash year, and it can safely be said this aim was certainly achieved. Prizes were awarded to the team scoring the most points, and the individuals scoring the most and the least points.

Upcoming Events

South West Masters Teams event

With only four weeks until the South West Masters tournament, the call for entries has now been sent out. The tournament will once again continue to be organised and run by the Busselton Squash Club and held at the South West Sports Centre in Bunbury. It will run over the Labor Day long weekend 2-3 March 2019.

This year's tournament promises to be even bigger and better, so get your entries in. If you did not received the email from the Busselton Squash Club, request one or register your intention to play by emailing busseltonsquashclub@gmail.com Hope to see you there.

Spotlight on 2019 WA Masters Squash Committee – Terry Brookes

Given the 'behind the scenes' work the Masters Squash Committee put in continuously throughout the year, I thought it only fitting that Masters members should find out a little background on these people who so generously donate their time to ensure the Masters continues to grow and thrive.

To this end I will be including a spotlight piece about one member each month so that everyone can appreciate the special effort these people put in for

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

the benefit of all Masters members. The first cab off the rank is Terry Brookes, who exhausts me just thinking about her, never mind thinking about everything she fits into her day.

Terry is your quintessential 'can do' person, and as such, is very much valued by the rest of the committee, as well as by the wider WA Masters squash community. You would be hard pressed to find a more willing, reliable, organised, dedicated and multi-skilled team member, who commits completely to everything she does.

While we are used to seeing her smiling face around tournaments and the squash scene generally, most people would not realise that Terry has an impressive background in sports administration.

As well as playing pennant squash at Mullaloo Squash Centre for well over thirty years, Terry has also been heavily involved in cricket administration, and generally in sports administration and committees for many more than 30 years, receiving recognition from the Australian Federal Government for 20 years service to sports administration.

In her other life, Terry is a highly capable and sought after Contracts Administrator for a large commercial construction company, well used to time constraints and juggling a hundred balls in the air, all of which contribute to her 'roles' on the committee. Her vast experience in time management in her professional life is especially beneficial when it comes to Masters committee work involving tournaments, when there is much to be done by only a few in a very short space of time.

In yet another facet of Terry's busy life she has also become an extremely proud grandmother in the past couple of years, with two beautiful grandchildren adding to her very close-knit happy family. I think this may now be Terry's favourite role of all, but she somehow still commits 110 per cent to all the tasks she undertakes for WA Masters Squash.

However, despite her extremely busy life, Terry manages to maintain an excellent work/life balance, applying the same, or maybe even more, commitment and enthusiasm to having a fun – which is also an extremely important and valued quality for committee-members and Masters squash-members to have.

Thanks, Terry, for all your work, help and support. Believe me it is much appreciated by all.
