ENTRIES CLOSE
WEDNESDAY
20 NOV 2019

Congratulations firstly to Sue Hillier and Anne Richards who played significant roles in the Trans Tasman Masters victory over New Zealand. Both Ladies remained undefeated and won their respective age groups in the NZ Masters titles.

Mike Corren and Zoe Petrovansky took out the Cambridge Open. Well done!

Congratulations also to all the winners at the Annual Volunteer Awards night.

Well its getting near the end of the year and that means its time to decide the SGPS Champions for 2019. So get your entry into the Manjimup one day junior tournament.

It is also the end of an era for Nigel and Leanne French. They (together with Mike Cornish) have delivered this fantastic series for a number of years and it is going to be sad to say good bye. However, life must go on and a wonderful platform now exists for somebody with fresh energy to coordinate the series. Fresh ideas!

It has been a pleasure working with you both and I wish you and the family well for the future. Thank you both for your wonderful contribution.

BOARDROOM

President's Pen

Dear Squash enthusiasts!

I was pleased to see so many of you recently at the Volunteers evening held at Mirrabooka Squash World. With close to 100 people, this was a fantastic evening to celebrate how great our volunteers are and to reflect on how fortunate WA Squash is to have you all involved. We thank you and appreciate your support.

This also provided the opportunity to reflect on our year at WA Squash, with the sale of our investment property, moving out from the Terrace Centre we now have a platform of stability which should hold us in good stead moving forward.

Ed Jennings, Ray Smith and Norm Collins were inducted as Life Members to WA Squash, my sincere congratulations to you all for your significant contribution.

The Board has now turned its attention to updating its Strategic Plan, what would we like Squash to look like in 10 years time and how are we going to achieve this?

The Strategic Plan will outline goals for Participation, Facilities, Education and build Framework around who is needed to achieve these goals. High level blue sky thinking at this stage and we look forward to consulting with the Clubs for their input once the first draft is ready.

As we all know, Squash remains one of the most active sports on the planet. We need to build some strategy around spreading the word and retaining players.

As a real-estate agent once told me, "I can't sell a secret!"

Our Junior State team are heading to Singapore early in December to play in the Singapore Junior Open, I've just been told there are 300 children entered in this event! Hopefully, a fantastic opportunity for lots of matches, forming new friendships and experiencing a different cultural experience.

Good luck to all and do us proud on all levels.

Happy Squashing,

Glenn Hitch

DEAN'S DIARY

So in keeping with my theme of “Memories of a Professional Squash Player” I would like to touch on the transition time of squash from Amateur to Open.

As a young Professional in 1978 one of the great thrills I was looking forward to was to play with Geoff Hunt in the Australian team in 1981. The game went Open in 1980/81 but the ISRF (International Squash Rackets Federation) wanted to run the 1981 world teams event in Sweden as an Amateur event so all the top world 16 ranked pros boycotted the event thus ruling out any chance I ever had of playing in a team with Geoff!

Sadly, Geoff retired in 1982 so he never played for Australia again. The championships in Sweden were recognised as an official world title event as was the last one played under that banner in 1983 in NZ. The difference in 1983 was there was prizemoney and points. So Jahangir and the rest of the world played this event as well as the World Open held in Germany. So two world titles in 1983!! A bit like the first ever World Open which was the British Open in 1976/77 which Geoff Hunt won ... two titles in one! The World Open was then played every year at a new venue .

So it was a confusing time for us players. Sometimes we forget this transition period which in my humble opinion was not handled well by the governing bodies at the time. So good to see it now all sorted out.

BITTERSWEET FEELING FOR WA JUNIORS AT AJC

There was a bittersweet feeling for the WA contingent heading off to the 2019 Australian Junior Championships, as this was the first year in many that we would not be officially sending our state team. 12 players with racquet bags, thermals and families in tow made the jump across the Strait to downtown Devonport to compete in one of only two platinum tournaments in Australia. Being grand final weekend, the planes were full and ironically given the Tassie flavour there were Tigers everywhere.

Results wise, the Westerners punched well above our weight class, with the lowest position any of us finishing was still in the top 10. Greg Chan (who still counts himself, and we proudly claim as a WA-er) and Oscar Curtis certainly proved how good they were.

Both playing out of their age-groups to finish Runner-up and 4th respectively, in the U19 age group! With Oscar having the honour of taking the only game off eventual winner Jacob Ford.

Isla Harris came up against her nemesis Maja Maziuk for the second time, and unfortunately lost in 4, giving Isla a second runner up finish at the highest level.

Dylan Classen (U17), Caitlin Pratt(U15) and Hannah Slyth (U13) all finished in 3rd place. Great results for these awesome players and a perfect reminder of the depth across age groups of the West Aussie kids. Kiran Byles continues to improve his placings, Isla Mac, Remi Young, Sterling Slyth and Erin Classen also all had strong finishes.

Of course, as well as squash there was sightseeing to be done, and mountains to climb (literally) with some people going go-carting, hiking and visiting the local beaches... which were all rocky, are you allowed to call it a beach if it doesn't have sand?

My quick snap shot of Tassie runs as so. Roundabouts everywhere, with one even having a railway line smack through the middle of it. Must make for some very interesting giving way to the right, Cradle Mountain was brilliant, with snow, views to die for and wombats by the bucketful. The roads are narrow and windy, everywhere is green and the scenery goes forever. The locals are super friendly and don't feel the cold and Lee Curtis could eat pizza for Australia.

Even though we didn't play the teams we kept our tradition of a team dinner, backed with the inevitable cards. Congrats to Queensland who won the event, maybe next year!

I managed to set a new record on the way home ... getting caught by security with 3 pairs of scissors in my squash bag! I wonder where all that confiscated stuff goes?

Good-luck to the team who will be travelling to Singapore later this year.

MASTERS TRANS TASMAN TEST SERIES

The Anne Richards and Sue Hillier Report.

We arrived in Christchurch on Saturday 12 October and had an enjoyable drive to Timaru through some lush, deep green countryside.

The Aussie team were all close together in three houses with us and four other girls in one house. This was a great experience, great camaraderie, team talks, tactics, laughter and fun.

A quick hit was organised on Sunday to get used to the courts, two of them had wood panelled back walls, and of course the grey front walls. The two test series courts had different height ceilings and one was faster than the other.

We learned that the Timaru Squash Centre was the oldest squash centre in New Zealand and the staff couldn't have been friendlier.

Leading into our first test we were treated to a traditional Maori welcome along with the Kiwi players and all supporters.

This was a fantastic way to start the series, it was a real honour organised by the Timaru council. We were sung in by Maori elders and the Haka was performed by local Maori school girls who also sang traditional welcome songs with amazing, powerful voices.

The National anthems and team photos followed and here you could see the camaraderie between the teams. With all that finished, Anne was first on the live streaming court and very nervous, wanting to get Australia off to a good start. She settled down well and beat her fit opponent Karen Walton in 3.

Sue played on the other court against Kay Newman, she was also nervous and quickly realised that Kay was an experienced tactician on court. Sue called on all her knowledge to also win her first test in 3.

With their matches over Anne and Sue were able to watch everyone else fight to win, with a bit of coaching as well. It was great to see, there were some 5 setters and sore, tired bodies - but most importantly, a win to Australia 11 matches to 3 on the night.

MASTERS TRANS TASMAN TEST SERIES

Tuesday was the second test with Anne and Sue both having a win, however some of the other matches results were reversed. Australia won the second test 10/4. Ice baths followed for some players from both sides after two tough days of squash with a well deserved rest day on Wednesday.

On the rest day Anne and Sue travelled south to Omaru through some beautiful country side with some others in the team.

Thursday was the final test and although we had won the series no one was willing to let their guard down. Everyone tried hard, again several match results were reversed and both Anne and Sue continued their streak with wins. Australia won the final test 11/3.

The next day was straight into the individual championships. The organisers had a major blimp when two planes with a lot of competitors were stranded at their respective airports. The organisers did an amazing job reorganising schedules quickly to keep the tournament on track.

Anne won her individual O60 title against Karen Walton 3-0 and Sue went on to win the O55 title over Katherine McKay 3-0. Overall Australia won 8 titles, a result to be proud of.

Thanks must go to the WA Masters and Australian Masters for their continued support. Special thank you to our team Manager Garry Irwin, who organises the players, the schedules, accommodation and team meetings. A great job as usual, his passion and dedication is appreciated.

Thanks to all the supporters from Australia and New Zealand who came to watch and barrack, it really added to the atmosphere.

Lastly to our 12 other team mates. It was an honour to play with them all, such a friendly, cooperative and competitive group of players. A bond is forged that is special when you represent your country together, especially in another country. Thank you New Zealand.

2019 Cambridge Open

The STELLAR Cambridge Open was held on the 11th and 12th of October and was graced with a staggering 106 entries making it one of the biggest local Perth events for many a year!

Some of the highlights included one of the strongest Ladies Open fields I have ever seen in Perth outside of a PSA event, there was great depth and therefore some fantastic match ups, the Semi's included a fascinating master verses pupil battle between Erin Classen and Amanda Hopps with the master taking the honours this time!

In the other Semi Zoe Petrovansky overcame the old war horse Cindy Meintjes in a tight four games. After some high tech cutting edge sports science hydration techniques Zoe overcame Amanda 3/0 after a thrilling first game went all the way to 20/18!

Elsewhere, Callum Blakey overcame a 2/0 deficit to beat Lewis Christie in a ferocious encounter in the Men's division one final, great to see two young Bears clawing each other for the right to grasp the trophy with both paws! Also of great note was fast improving Hannah Slyth who was victorious in both the Ladies Division one final AND the Junior event final! Well done Hannah!

Cambridge competitors managed to claim the honours in SIX of the divisions including two 'young' chaps who were playing their first ever tournament!

In the Men's Open final an old chunk of coal managed to take the title after meeting the remnants of an exhausted Tim Cowell, Tim had triumphed in an energy sapping five set victory over his former lawn bowls partner Dave 'Gogi' Ilich which took in the vicinity of 80 minutes!

A fantastic after party was held after presentations and rocked on until the wee hours, it was in fact the biggest celebration at a Perth sporting event since Australia won the America's Cup back in 1983!

A huge thanks goes to STELLAR for being title sponsors of the event, not only are they the biggest selling racquets in WA at the present time but there is a strong argument to suggest they currently make the best Squash racquets, by humans, on this planet.. ever! :)

Trans Tasman Series

Following on from their wonderful individual successes at the 2019 Australian Masters Squash Championships in September, our own champions Sue Hillier and Anne Richards were an integral part of the Australian Trans Tasman Team that successfully defended the Vic Belsham Trophy in New Zealand this year.

Both Sue and Anne were undefeated in all three tests. The Australian team's results were outstanding, winning the first test 11 matches to 3, the second 10 matches to 4, and the third 11 matches to 3. Both Sue and Anne dropped only 1 game each throughout the three test series, a fantastic performance from our champions.

To add to their fantastic results in the Test Series, they both took out the Individual Championship in their respective age groups in the NZ Masters Championships in Timaru. Sue won the Individuals Over 55 Championship, and Anne the Over 60 Championship. WA Masters extend a wholehearted congratulations to both Sue and Anne. Ladies, you have done WA and Australia proud.

WA Masters Spring Teams event

This tournament will be conducted over the weekend of Saturday November 16 and Sunday November 17 at the Squash Factory, Wangara. Entries close on Monday 11 November. If you don't have a team in mind, enter individually and the tournament organisers will slot you into one. This is generally a well-attended, fun tournament so don't miss out, get your entry in now.

WA Masters Squash AGM

As has been the practice of the past few years, the Masters Squash AGM will be held at the close of the day's play of the Spring Teams Tournament on Saturday 16 November, around 4pm, at the Squash Factory.

Nominations for the positions of Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and general committee members are all being called for. It would be great if everyone could please make an effort to stay for/attend the AGM as the committee members work hard all year to ensure great events continue to be held and Masters continues to thrive, and the AGM is an excellent time and place to have your say or offer suggestions, and/or even your nominations.

Friday Night Masters

Just a reminder that our Friday Night Masters comp is continually seeking players. Whether you just want a few games, or you want to commit to weekly games, everyone is welcome. The social aspect of the evening can't be underestimated; whether you're catching up with old friends or making new ones, it's a great way to spend an evening: exercise, eating, drinking and staying in touch with your Masters mates.

Contact Kane on 0421 490 799, or by email masters@squashworld.com.au, to get involved.

End of year function

Well, that bedlam that is Christmas is breathing hotly down our collars, and so it's time to think of good things — like our end of year function. This is just a timely reminder that this year's social windup will be Lunch at the Balmoral Hotel in Victoria Park on Sunday, 8th of December. Hope to see a great turnout this year. See you there!

Battle of Belmont

Looking just a tiny bit into the coming year (apologies), the Battle of Belmont will be held on Friday the 7th February 2020. More details will be sent out to everyone closer to the date.

VIC PARK SQUASH UPDATE

In September, Vic Park Squash Club held its annual Club Championships and its Inaugural Presentation Dinner at the Royal Perth Golf Club. The event was well represented, and it was a great night for members to socialise and celebrate their successes for the year.

The Winners of 2019 Club Championships were as follows:

2019 VIC PARK CLUB CHAMPIONS

Mens Open

Winner Abel Jin
Runner up Brent Scheer

Mens Division 2

Winner Mike Cann
Runner up Lou Cotter

MOST IMPROVED

Mens Mike Cann
Ladies Michelle Cornish

Ladies Open

Winner Sue Hillier
Runner up Lisa Christou

Ladies Division 2

Winner Kat Tonkin
Runner up Michelle Cornish

Ladies Division 3

Winner Monique Ford
Runner up Lisa Nichols

This year we introduced a new award -

THE MIN FORD FAIREST AND BEST AWARD

In September 2018 we lost our very much loved Vic Park member and friend Min Ford. Min had been an integral part of Vic Park squash club since 1984 when it was Manning.

This new annual award was presented to someone who displays consistently great sportsmanship, always performs to the best of their ability, is well liked and respected by everyone at the club and is a fantastic ambassador for the sport. All of these characteristics were of course embodied the award's namesake, Min Ford. This year's winner was Roger Schmidlin.

Junior Open Day

A very successful “Smarter than Smoking” Junior Open Day was held on 8 October at Vic Park Squash.

The improvement all the children achieved after only just 3 hours was amazing. All participants had heaps of fun!

Big thanks to all the Coaches for the day: Sue Hillier, Abel Jin, Derek Nunn and Lisa Christou

JUNIORS

2018's WA Coach of the Year Sue Hillier runs a fantastic junior program at Vic Park on a Wednesday afternoon from 4.30pm – 5.30pm during the school term. It is great to see the effort our young players make each week and to see their game improve. We base most of the training on game play and finish the terms with a parent vs. child day which is enjoyable for all. Congratulations to all juniors in our club who always try to display good sportsmanship and have a laugh at training.
