MARSH BOYS EXCEL

EDITORIAL

© WA Squash - March 2020
ISSUE 48

Congratulations to Mike "Moose" Corren for winning his second West Coast Open in as many years and Sue Hillier for winning the Women's Open.

"Moose" was too good for surprise finalist Tim Cowell winning in straight whilst Sue Hillier had a tough battle against Amanda Hopps.

Sue won a tight first game 16-14 before winning the next two by a more comfortable margin 15-10, 15-11 to secure the title in three.

Congratulations to the Marsh Boys: Daniel, Eric and Alexander. Firstly, all 3 boys are ranked in the Top 2 in Australia in their respective age groups. Alexander is #1 in U11 whilst Daniel and Eric are ranked #2.

The most notable achievement is that in March 2020 all 3 boys were ranked in the Top 10 in U15 in Australia: Daniel 2, Eric 8 and Alexander 9.

"Absolutely Groovy Baby" ... Hippie Night was a great success at Mirrabooka on 22 February. Georgia Dennison won the prize for best dressed hippie!

Dean's Diary

February was quite hectic with pennants and leagues starting but we managed to get under way on time and numbers aren't too bad. A huge thank you to Kane Fasolo again for helping me to do the draw and fixtures on Sporty HQ ... thanks Kane, I could not do it without you. I attended quite a few DSR meetings and WA Squash is playing a more involved role which the DSR really appreciate. Board members are also attending courses relevant to their roles which makes for very interesting feedback.

Our relationship with Squash Australia is much better and a huge thanks to Leigh Anne Kaye for taking on this role and working tirelessly with Joanne Brodie (the new president of SA). WA Squash has our AGM on the 25th of March and this will take place at Vic Park Squash Club on Wed the 25th at 6.30 pm. Four Board members are vacating but all four have re-nominated which is great for the stability of squash in WA as we still have issues with Squash Australia and affiliation fees. Our finances are back in order and we have once again secured DSR and Healthway funding. As I am writing this report, our President Glenn Hitch is now home after a few days in hospital where he underwent a small operation and we wish him a speedy recovery.

In keeping with my theme of life as a squash professional I was contacted by a person who had found a Spalding wooden racket with Heather McKay's name on it and on the throat it has 18 World Championships. So I'm guessing but I think it's around 1980 when Spalding brought this autographed model out after Heather retired in 1979. This racket brought back great memories for me as I was in Sheffield UK when Heather won the very first ever World Women's Open after an absence of 2 years since she had won her last British Open in 1977.

Having moved to Canada for a very lucrative contract in a Toronto club, the incentive to win the first official World Open was too great and Heather turned up to play. I had been playing in an ISPA event in Sheffield the week before and decided to stay on and watch. Heather asked me if I could do some routines with her and we trained for a few days before the event started and we did drills during the event. Looking back it was a thrill to be on court with her as she was so competitive and so disciplined. She did drop a game to Sue Cogswell from the UK but Heather after 18 years and at the age of 38, showed why she is without a doubt the G.O.A.T. and won the event. I read on a lot of sites that some think that Nicol David was the best female player or even Susan Devoy but I can assure you not one of these players would have won a game from Heather in her prime!

WEST COAST OPEN

Sue Hillier Reports

The West Coast Open was held at Squashworld Brentwood from 31 January to 1 February. This was the first senior tournament for the year and attracted 66 players.

Thank you to Kane Fasolo who ran this event in conjunction with the junior New Years Bash.

It was great to see several players from Broome (especially juniors) at this event.

The weekend was a great success with only one incident in the Open Mens semi-final between David Ilich and Tim Cowell.

At one game all and the third game a cliff hanger, Dave ran in to retrieve a drop shot and clipped Tim's shoulder on his way out from the shot, an innocuous collision. Dave not feeling well, went to hospital ending up with concussion.

2020 SOUTH WEST MASTERS TEAMS

Warren Oliver Reports

59 Players from the southwest and Perth competed in the 34th SW Squash Masters this year held at the South West Sports Centre in Bunbury over the long weekend in March in 5 Divisions with ages from 35 to over 80 years. The Busselton Club ran the tournament while the Bunbury Club supplied the courts, ran the bar and dinner. This is the biggest Masters Squash event outside of Perth and one of the longest running.

Busselton was able to have representatives in all 5 divisions. 14 Busselton players entered over the weekend in 5 teams with 3 Busselton teams being runner ups in their division.

The coveted Division1 shield was taken out by the Bunbury team of Jamie Herring, Dean Reynolds, and Brad Ginter defeating team Ring Arounds with Busselton's Sean Brockman, Dave Windsor (who hasn't played for 5 years) and Bec Treasure with Mandurah's Brad Hibbs. Bunbury has now won the converted Div 1 title in 2014, 2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020! The team won all its matches over the weekend with both Dean and Brad going thru the weekend undefeated while Jamie's only lost was to Danny Zande.

Division 2 was taken out by the Bunbury team of Kim Stone (his first tournament entry and undefeated for the weekend), Mark Lush (undefeated) and Bec Herring defeating the Busselton team of Gys Van Zyl (also his first tournament), Phil Cox and Warren Oliver (also undefeated). After qualifying there was only 1 point separating both teams. Bunbury has now won this division, 4 out of the past 5 years. The score in the final was 6/3.

Division 3 final saw team Alternative Paradise of Ric Nicholas, Jim Hine and Stephen Barrow defeat the Busselton team of Jane Hunt, Stu Morgan, Roger Skelton (who had to play twice in the finals due to injuries) and Ron Buswell. Again, there was only 1-point separating both teams after qualifying. The Alternative Paradise team went thru the weekend undefeated.

Division 4 ended up being the closest of all divisions with all 4 teams being separated by only 5 points. Team "Two Ali's" of Ali Butler (undefeated), Alison Williams and Chris Reston won the final 5/4 over Quita's Crew of George Reid, Quita Cass and Fred Piekarek (his first tournament).

Division 5 saw team Hit the Nick of Terry Brookes, Nikki McCullough and Di Cook comfortable winners over team PEMs of Peter Rinaldi, Eileen Jellis and Moya Credaro. Both Terry and Di went thru undefeated.

Saturday night saw 57 people socialise at a gourmet bbq function at the Bunbury Tennis Centre which recognised 21 players who have entered the tournament 10 or more times with one player, Joyce Barnett, having entered an incredible 30 times out of a possible 34 and with her first entry way back in 1988 (the 2nd year of the tournament) and from there she didn't miss a tournament for the next 21 years. So this year there was a special acknowledgement to Joyce to honour her achievement of 30 years.

2020 SOUTH WEST MASTERS TEAMS

Four other players have also played 20 or more being Moya Credaro, Ron Buswell, Warren Oliver and Linda McBrierty. All 10 year plus players were given a Busselton Squash Club wine goblet as a memento. Over the past 34 years 553 players have played at least once in the tournament, and it was great to see 10 players make their first appearance at this iconic event.

The Busselton Cub would like to thank its many sponsors: Hillzeez Down South Surf Shops, Busselton Discount Drug Store, and Wayne Evans for supplying the very popular Crayfish in the raffle, Ron Clayton for the compiling the draws,

This is a unique event in which 2 rival clubs, Busselton and Bunbury come together to run this wonderful event. The Busselton Squash Club will continue to play its weekly pennants out of the Sebel Courts in Busselton.

Life members Ron Clayton and Warren Oliver acknowledging Joyce Barnett's 30th year at the SW Squash Masters

Thank You for participating.
We look forward to seeing you again next year.

Mark Lush and Brad Grinter (Bunbury)
Warren Oliver and Ron Clayton

WA MASTERS UPDATE By Janis Haswell

FRIDAY NIGHT MASTERS

VENUE: SQUASH WORLD BRENTWOOD

DISNEY STREET, BRENTWOOD

7:30 PM START

What is Friday Night Masters?

Friday Night Masters is a weekly competition run specifically for Masters players. We encourage you to join in this great competitive and social night, and catch up with fellow Masters you may only see at tournaments. All levels of players are welcome and catered for. To join contact Kane on 0421 490 799, or send an email to masters@squashworld.com.au

How is it organised?

On joining you will be allocated a team; however, there is no pressure to play every week if you are unable to do so. Play when you can, and just inform the venue beforehand if you are unable to make it on a particular date. Fixtures are planned, and finals held at the end of each season.

What does it cost?

The cost is $12 payable each Friday you attend. This includes supper. There is a supper roster to share the load a bit, and if it's your turn to bring along supper to share, your entry fee for the evening is returned to you. If you are unable to stay for supper, then that's fine too. You will, however, miss out on the great camaraderie and fun that is typical of the social part of the evening.

There is also a terrific bar selling beer and wine at special low prices, served by a friendly, cheerful barman. A raffle is run each Friday and is drawn on the night. Great prizes to be had!

COME ALONG AND JOIN US ON FRIDAYS

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

Friday Night Masters

It's not my intention to become boring, but I'd just like to mention once again the importance to WA Masters Squash of maintaining the Friday Night Masters competition. Some states are lucky to have enough Masters players to have a full home-and-away Masters fixtures pennant competition. Given WA's geographical and population size constraints, that's just not possible here. All we can do is provide a great venue and a well organised (by a group of dedicated Masters generously donating their time) weekly competition, encourage everyone to come along and build on the existing group that attend, and hope we can grow the numbers in order to keep the comp going for those younger Masters now joining the ranks. It's fantastic and heartening to see new faces each time we hold a Masters event.

Season 1 of 2020 Friday Night Masters commenced on Friday, February 14. Play commences at 7:30 pm each Friday.

Venue: Squash World Brentwood, Disney Street, BRENTWOOD.

Cost: $12 (including supper)

Anyone interested in joining as a regular player or as a reserve please contact Kane on 0421 490 799 or email at masters@squashworld.com.au

Battle of Belmont

The Masters competition year got off to a fantastic and fun start with the Battle of Belmont. The creative team names based on 'battle' themed movies/TV inspired some fantastic, hard-fought squash matches, and, thankfully, lots of smiles and happy faces not covered with war paint or battle scars.

The team names included: Star Wars, Star Trek, Braveheart, Lord of the Rings, Wild Bunch, Apocalypse Now, Great Escape and Where Eagles Dare. With a total of 63 entrants, forming 6 teams of 8 and 2 teams of 7, the action was (mostly, we are Masters after all) fast and furious, and the evening was nicely capped off with a delicious supper of chicken, chips and plenty of salads, bread and nibbles.

The Masters Committee organised terrific prizes as well; the winners received a $20 movie voucher and a WAMS bath towel, and the runners-up laid claim to $10 movie tickets and a WAMS hand towel.

Lazaroo. Runners-up: The Great Escape: Graham Follington, Wes Emery, Eric Walsh, Tony Watchman, Terry Brookes, Moya Credaro, Eileen Jellis, and Marton Nicholas.

South West Masters Teams event

This event was again held at Bunbury's South West Sports Centre. It was held over the Labour Day long weekend: Saturday 29 Feb – Monday 2 March 2020. The Busselton Squash Club, in conjunction with the Bunbury Sports Centre and Squash Club, always make this a fantastic tournament with plenty of games and after-squash fun. See Warren Oliver's round-up of the event in this issue of the SWAN.

WA Masters Squash website

Check out the WA Masters website for the latest Masters information and upcoming events. See www.wamasterssquash.com - Visit us there and leave a comment.

What's next?

The next Masters event to look forward to is the popular Hilton Classic held at Hilton Squash and Fitness Centre. The tournament will be run over 16-17 May 2020. Hope to see everyone there. The next event to follow the Hilton will be the WA Masters State Championships, which will be held over 24-26 July 2020. Be sure to keep these dates free.

Keep your eyes open for the WA Masters Newsletters, which are sent to all Masters via email and contain more detailed information about Masters events closer to the time they're run.
