ISSUE 52

The BIGGEST squash tournament to be played in WA in 2020 will be Country Week with over 200 players expected to play!

Brad Grinter has been hard at work getting everything organised and now all is set for the 26-28 September extravaganza at Squash World Mirrabooka!

Last year 48 teams from country WA participated. They had Men's A to G grade and Ladies A to D grade. This year we need to break 50 teams!

Team Registrations are now open. You can download the Tournament Pack from the WA Squash website.

Need more information? Contact Brad on 0419 316 866 or send him an email ascbunburysquash@gmail.com

Slowly but surely we are returning to normal but it is important we continue to where ever possible maintain social distancing, avoid hugging and handshakes and wash our hands regularly. Nobody wants to return to a 2nd lock down!

This month Dean examines the squash life and times of Del Mazzucchelli. WOW ... Del certainly did a lot for squash. Today more than ever we need volunteers like Del ... a wonderful inspiration!

THE BOARDROOM

President's Pen

Dear WA Squash Community,

I hope you and your family are safe and sound and have taken the opportunity to get back on to the Squash court. So pleased to see competition will resume this month ... it never ceases to amaze me how passionate our squash community is.

I must apologize for not writing for the past few months, I've been recovering from a medical event and happy to report my recovery is going well and hope to be playing again in the next few months.

Our AGM was held over Zoom and a terrific turn out, great to see so many Clubs and Members Zoom in. A bit of shuffling on the Board and congratulations to Leigh-Anne Kaye who is now Vice President and Katy Scott who is Secretary. I would like to thank Trevor Cruickshank (Previously Vice President) and Deb Hoffrichter (Previously Secretary) for all their efforts. Both Trevor and Deb remain on the Board. Neil Butler remains as the Treasurer.

The Board has set up a strategic review group, this group have been joining Club Committee meetings where possible, our aim is to meet with all Clubs that are willing to have us! It's a big task, and we are enjoying it immensely. Each Club is uniquely different but the one common theme is the genuine passion for Squash. The purpose of these meetings is to engage in open and honest discussion on how we can collectively serve squash better.

There are 5 levels of administration in Squash, Court Owners, Centre Operators, Clubs, State Body and National Body, not to mentioned the many Committees, National and State bodies that provide grants with expectations.

It is fair to say not all levels of administration are aligned in their vision. The goal of this review process is to start the conversation and ideally come up with some clear parameters on what WA Squash will deliver for its Members. We are hopeful to meet with the majority of Clubs Committee by the end of July, we will then consolidate the information which will be discussed with Members in August.

Dean and Sue remain as busy as ever, would like to thank them on the continued communication with our Members and specifically Dean's management of the COVID situation.

Dean's Diary

It goes without saying just how good it is to see centres full again after a very short time shutdown due to that horrid virus. If anyone had said back in March that by mid-June we would be back in business, firstly, I would have said there is no chance and secondly, I was sure that we would not be able to contain this virus which we have done so well and now we are reaping the rewards ... so well done to everyone !!

In keeping with my theme of a touring professional squash player for over 15 years from 1976 to 1991, I was thinking during lock down just how lucky I was and how much I loved what I did and one of the loveliest stories was when I was asked to do an exhibition in Zurich at the opening of a wonderful indoor squash and tennis centre called VITIS.

This venue held the lucrative Swiss Masters for many years. I was in London and the call came through would I like to do this and the deal was done and Pam and I decided to get the fast train from London to Paris and then on to Zurich.

The name VITIS was made up of 3 well known tennis players ... Guillermo Vilas (The V.I.) Ion Tiriac (the T.I.) and Tim Sturdzia (The S. ) and I was to play Qamar Zaman in the best of 3 and then both Qamar and I would play Vilas.

In the change rooms before the match Tiriac (by the way a very good tennis player as he won the 1970 French Open Doubles and semis of Wimbledon as well that year and is a Billionaire from Romania) came up to me and said that I had better make Vilas look good as he had never played squash before but being a great tennis champion he should be OK but make him look very good ... I was sort of threatened with this as Tiriac is a pretty scary guy with a moustache that made him look like a Mexican gun slinger !!

So the match with Qamar was very entertaining, the crowd loved all the antics and there was no shortage of nick shots and lots of banter.

I then had to play Vilas and we went straight back on to an incredible roar as he was a seriously lovely guy, very fit and strong and had just come off losing the Final of the French Open to Mats Wilander in 4 sets as well as being joint ranked number one in the world in 1977 with Borg and now in 1982 ranked 4th.

All the time whilst we were warming up I had Tiriac's voice in my head to make him look good. The match was great fun and I put the ball onto his racket, over hit shots so they would come off the back wall etc so as Vilas would run down every ball. At the end of the one game when he fell into the corner exhausted he turned to me and said that this game is seriously hard!!

That night at dinner he felt sorry for Pam and I that we had to get the train back to London and he flicked his fingers and his manager came running and he disappeared only to come back in an hour with 2 first class Swiss Air tickets back to London!!

He really was a great guy. I saw him many years later at the Oz Open tennis and we had a chat and a drink or two ... it was so nice he remembered that night and it certainly made Pamela's night !!

Until next month

Flashback ...

Guillermo Vilas v Dean Williams

Well done and thank you to everyone who participated in the Cambridge Club Championships on the 19th/ 20th of June. It was wonderful to see so many people there on Friday and Saturday to celebrate a return to squash and getting together again. It was also great to see a few new faces coming in and enjoying their first squash tournament!

Thank you to Mike Corren for promoting the event and organising the players and entries, not to mention making the cocktails at the after party! Thanks to Kane and Simmo for running the champs, supporting the club and cooking the curry! Also, a thank-you to the members who helped on the day!

Congratulations to our Open Club Champions for 2020, Mark Bredmeyer and Pascale Louka. Mark had a tough battle ending in a nail-biter with Jamie Serra in the final (11-9, 11-5, 4-11, 6-11 and 12-10). Pascale won all her matches 3-0 in the Ladies Open round robin to take the title.

Congratulations to all the winners over the weekend in all divisions.

Finally, a special thank you to Mike, Dave and Tim for a great exhibition in the Cambridge Lightning Challenge (timed 20 minute matches).

Mike took on the double challenge by playing back to back in the morning and winning the challenge 39-18 (Tim) and 26-11 (Dave). Dave and Tim played later in the afternoon with Dave

With restrictions lifted WA Squash have a record number of schools signing up for the FREE 'Smarter than Smoking' Inflatable Squash Program in the metro and Busselton areas.

Coaches Tim Cowell, Lindsay Crane and Sean Brockman were visiting schools before COVID-19, exposing primary students to our game. These coaches take 2 inflatable courts to a school coaching students through some skills and game play, adjusting the plans for each age group whilst educating them on the Healthway message 'Squash is Smarter than Smoking'.

The students have a great time and love the Inflatable courts. Tim Cowell covers all the schools North of Perth and Brennan Pratt (from the well-known Narrogin Squash family) has taken over from Lindsay covering the schools in the South. Sean continues to do the schools in the Busselton-Dunsborough area.

If you would like WA Squash to visit your children's school please contact Sue Hillier at sue.hillier@wasquash.asn.au

WA Squash would like to thank Healthway 'Smarter than Smoking' for their continued sponsorship.

Squash Australia National Coach is coming to Perth

Squash Australia ran a High Performance camp for Australian Juniors in January this year. The camp was run by National Coach, Stewart Boswell along with Performance Pathway Manager, Jenny Duncalf at Carrara in the Gold Coast. A few of our top juniors and their parents made the decision to attend the camp at their own cost.

WA Squash are pleased to announce that Stewart Boswell will travel to Perth in early 2021 for a weekend to run a camp for our top U23 players. Squash Australia have agreed to pay for Stewart's airfare which will reduce the cost paid by our players/parents immensely. WA Squash have invited our top U23 players and hope that along with their coaches will attend the weekend to gain some valuable information and/or to confirm they are on the right track. The date will be dependent on COVID-19 restrictions.

This event will be open to any qualified coach so they can gain some more education in coaching squash – please contact Sue Hillier at sue.hillier@wasquash.asn.au should you be interested.

LIFE MEMBER PROFILE

Del Mazzucchelli

In keeping with our theme of getting to know our wonderful Life Members the spotlight is on Del Mazzucchelli for this edition.

I was extremely fortunate to have a lot to do with Del at tournaments, pennants and to have her as our State Team manager on many interstate trips. These were great trips and Del was highly respected as well as having a wonderful sense of humour.

The highlight in Del's illustrious career as a volunteer was when Perth held the 4th World Women's Championships at the WA Squash Headquarters at Curtin University. Del was the driving force for this major event and was on every committee which organised everything from media, accommodation, accreditation, practice courts, transport, referees, draws, social functions, VIP's, selling tickets, marketing and many more aspects.

The event has gone down as one of the most enjoyable the players have ever had. The event was won by the controversial player Vicki Cardwell (from Adelaide) who had been banned for bad behaviour 2 years earlier so she wasn't able to play for Australia in the Teams event but she could play as an individual. The Australian Women's team led by Rhonda Thorne won the title. So Del had a lot to deal with and did a superb job.

Del (and other life members like Alan East) started the WA Squash news in around 1973/4 which was eagerly sought after each month so as players could enter tournaments and see their ranking and the pennant draw was also published in this magazine. It was a huge job as there were over 70 clubs and over 3000 players playing each week in pennant. All this was done manually ... no computers in those days!!!

Del's tireless work as a volunteer lasted for decades and we still catch up with her as she has so many lifelong friends from squash.

A very brief summary of Del's volunteer life and achievements:

1973 Foundation Member of Squash Women's Auxiliary. Started Squash News and became Publicity Officer and member of Executive. Wrote a weekly article for The Sunday Times.

One of the committee of 3 who organized the highly successful Ladies Day League, at its peak boasting 32 divisions.

1975 – 1979 Manager of Ladies Senior and Junior State Teams. Also responsible for Fund Raising.

LIFE MEMBER PROFILE

Del Mazzucchelli

1979 Played a major role in organising the Australian Championships held at Balga Squash Centre as well as State Selector duties.

Around 1980 - Organised the original Senior Women's Competition that after a time morphed into the Masters Squash.

1980 Chairwoman of the committee that hosted a Women's one off test match between Australia and Great Britain in Perth.

1983 Oversaw all aspects of the Women's World Championships that saw 8 countries competing in individual and teams events in Perth.

Life Member of Balga Squash Club after 8 years as Men's Club Captain.

In addition served on both the tournament and pennant committees during the mid-80's.

1995 Awarded Life Membership of WA Squash.

WA MASTERS UPDATE By Janis Haswell

Well! At last squash is back to some semblance of normality, here in WA at least. Social players are back in droves, teams back to their training routines and pennants imminent. Great news for the squash centre owners and operators, the players and, of course the sport.

The Squash Factory Wangara is almost back to normal, with its junior programs and social days and evenings back in full swing. As court owners/operators know, it has been extremely hard work for them and their staff to keep the centres Covid 19 compliant. However, the hard work has been welcomed to get squash enthusiasts back on the court playing the sport they love. So it is good news that WA continues to incrementally but continuously move forward with opening up businesses and sport and recreations centres and activities.

What's next for Masters?

Friday 12 June saw a Masters Grand Re-Opening with the Battle of Brentwood. While the event has already been held when you read this, you can look forward to some fun photos of the evening's proceedings in the next issue of the SWAN.

Following on from that, the Friday Night Masters season recommenced on 19 June at 7.30pm. The cost remains at $12, which includes your squash and a sumptuous supper.

WA Masters Singles Tournament – Hilton Squash and Fitness Centre

This tournament will be held over the weekend of 25—26 July 2020. This is an individual event, with players placed in divisions according to their ranking. All details, and the entry form can be found on the WA Masters website www.wamasterssquash.com

Email enquiries can be sent to wamstournament@gmail.com or contact Terry Brookes on 0423 496 588. Entries close on Monday 20 July.

Masters 40th Anniversary Dinner/Dance 2020

29 August 2020 – Pagoda Ballroom

This is a fantastic occasion to celebrate in a year that has not held much in the way of celebration for many, so let's make it a night to indeed remember. The evening promises to be massive, with honoured guests attending, and some notable achievements recognised.

Masters will be heavily subsidising the evening keeping the ticket cost to only $35 per person which includes a delicious three course dinner. A DJ will be busy keeping us all on the dance floor and drinks will be available at the bar (bar prices). Bear in mind that numbers will still be limited due to residual Covid restrictions, so register your interest as soon as you can. Please email Chris Farley charlief12@y7mail.com or phone on 0431 837 649 if you would like to be part of this once in 40 years celebration.

WA 2020 Masters State Championships

2020 Master State Championships will be held over September 4, 5 and 6 at Squashworld Mirrabooka, with entries closing on Monday 31 August. Please email wamastersquash@gmail.com for entry forms and details.

A final note:

While life is returning to 'almost normal' here in WA, spare a thought for our Masters family in other states, where the situation is not quite the same for them. If nothing else, this pandemic experience brings into focus the importance of staying involved, and of valuing those people and connections we can sometimes take for granted.

The 2021 Australian Masters Championships give us all something to really look forward to; seeing our interstate long-time friends, having some great games and enjoying the fantastic, festive atmosphere that is always part of the event.

In the meantime, get involved in all the events WA Masters is busy organising for us. And get back to squash and help our squash business owners and operators keep their doors open for us.

DON'T FORGET TO PROMOTE WA MASTERS TO YOUR SQUASH FRIENDS!

THE SOCIAL AND PHYSICAL BENEFITS AND FUN
OFFERED BY BELONGING ARE INVALUABLE.
AND YOU ONLY NEED TO BE 35 TO JOIN THE FUN!
